Look For the NASC
Quality Seal.

The NASC (National Animal Supplement Council) Quality Seal identifies products from companies that are committed to quality, vigilance, and continuous improvement. To display the Quality Seal on their products and marketing materials, NASC member companies must demonstrate ongoing compliance with the following criteria:

- Random product testing
- Stringent labeling compliance
- Documented quality control and production
- Ingredients reviewed by NASC Scientific Advisory Committee
- Real-time product monitoring and mandatory event reporting
